

Do you have what it takes to become a citizen?

You answered 95% of questions correctly. Here's your rating:

0-20%: Maybe you're still thinking too much about the Old Country -- and that's where you should probably be.

25-40%: Mmmm. Do you really want to be a citizen? This kind of performance isn't going to impress those nice immigration folks.

45-60%: Not too bad, but you really need to break out the civics books again -- word is, the INS is looking for an 80 percent score.

65-80%: Hey, you may make a good citizen yet! Look at your wrong answers and a little revision should do the trick.

85-100%: Welcome to the United States! (And, truth be told, you know more about this great land than most Americans.)

1. How many stripes are there on the U.S. flag?

Correct

13

2. Who is the chief justice of the Supreme Court today?

Correct

John G. Roberts Jr.

3. In what year was the Constitution written?

Correct

1787

4. Which of these is guaranteed by the First Amendment?

Correct

Freedom of the press

5. How many Supreme Court justices are there?

Correct

9

6. What are the first 10 amendments to the Constitution called?

Correct

The Bill of Rights

7. When was the Declaration of Independence adopted?

Correct

July 4, 1776

8. Which of the following amendments to the Constitution does NOT address or guarantee voting rights?

Correct

7th Amendment

9. What are the 13 original states?

Correct

Connecticut, New Hampshire, New York, New Jersey, Massachusetts, Pennsylvania, Delaware, Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Rhode Island, Maryland

10. What do the stripes on the U.S. flag mean?

Correct

They represent the 13 original states

11. What is the introduction to the Constitution called?

Correct

The Preamble

12. How many changes or amendments are there to the Constitution?

Correct

27

13. Which of the following is NOT one of the constitutional requirements to be eligible to become president?

Correct

Must have served as a governor

14. Who selects the Supreme Court justices?

Correct

They are appointed by the president. (NOTE: This is the response given on

The president selects the justices; however, they must be confirmed by the U.S. Senate. If they are rejected by the Senate, then the president must choose a new nominee, who, again, is subject to Senate approval.)

15. How many representatives are there in Congress?

Correct

435

16. Who said, "Give me liberty or give me death"?

Correct

Patrick Henry

17. Why did the Pilgrims come to America?

Correct

For religious freedom

18. Who has the power to declare war?

Correct

Congress

19. What INS form is used to apply to become a naturalized citizen?

Form N-200 "Petition for Naturalization" is not correct.

N-400 "Application for Naturalization"

20. Which of these contains three rights or freedoms guaranteed by the Bill of Rights?

Correct

Freedom of speech, freedom of the press, freedom of religion